

NOT THE NORM

This book is an appreciation of the surprising enterprise found in the small Yorkshire town of Normanton, a town ripe for economic development.

To encourage others, local people who are developing their own businesses have put this little book together to talk about explain where their enterprise came from and to talk about the risks they took. Their stories give an insight into the start-up experiences and the continuing business success of people who 'wanted to go it alone'.

CREATIVE RES
Normanton

£5.00

Sarah Edwards

NOT THE NORM